

Training Ambassador Role Description
More Light Presbyterians Ambassador Program

Duties:

- Offer trainings to More Light members, chapters, and student groups on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity 101, Building an Inclusive Church, and Effective Storytelling for Social Change.
- Attend a Building an Inclusive Church Train the Trainer workshop
- Respond to quarterly requests for training opportunities in your region

Qualifications:

- Experience training and facilitating in faith communities
- Competence teaching about sexual orientation and gender identity
- Ability to explain clearly MLP's mission, vision, theology of abundance
- Excellent verbal communication skills, especially in front of various crowd sizes
- Desired: Comfortable with using Google applications (docs, sheets, drive, hangouts, calendar), Doodle online scheduling tool, and social media (Facebook and Twitter)

Note:

Some training engagements will offer an honorarium. There is no expectation or obligation that this gift is passed on to More Light Presbyterians. However, any contribution of honorariums passed on to MLP will be used to fund travel, lodging, and other expenses of More Light Ambassadors